This heritage granite property boasts exceptional privacy, and the beautifully maintained mature gardens take full advantage of the property's breathtaking position with spectacular views across rural land toward the north coast with the island of Sark in the distance. The new kitchen opens directly onto a private flagstone-paved inner courtyard, perfect for entertaining and alfresco dining. Pocket doors lead from the kitchen through to a cozy characterful snug and features a wood-burning stove. The main reception room has a magnificent, vaulted ceiling and minstrel's gallery, complemented by an impressive functional fireplace. Further pocket doors open into the elevated orangery, which boasts a triple-aspect outlook across rolling fields towards the sea. There are 6 double bedrooms and 5 bathrooms and the summer secondary kitchen opens directly onto a large private south-facing patio courtyard and outdoor heated swimming pool. Externally, the property benefits from a separate one-bedroom cottage set over two floors and with patio doors to a separate private garden. There is parking for at least eight cars on the gravel forecourt and driveway, two double garages and a further single garage suitable for storage. Pets by arrangement. Available 1st September 2026.
